

80 is Enough

The next issue is whether the court would have jurisdiction over Distill's warehouse. It must be found that the property attached to the forum, the property is seized before judgement, mere presences in forum is not enough, it must be jurisdiction by necessity, the defendant cannot be found, the property is not related to claim it needs to be shown that IPJ could be secured over defendant and it must also be shown that defendant reasonably tried to locate the defendant. Abbreviate your sentences. Running too much together, so had to follow
