

SMJ = Venue

In order for a case to be transferred there are several elements that must be met. First, a case can only be transferred by an original defendant. (removal limitation) This is not a problem as long as it is one of the defendants attempting to transfer the venue rather than the plaintiff (who can never transfer venue) (authority?) because the only defendants are the original ones.